Time is a dimension which we, who are products of the twentieth century, are only too conscious of—and thus it seems a fitting theme for this book. We, the class of '64, have reached a turning point in our lives; we can look back in wonder at the past years when time seemed to move so slowly, yet somehow vanished before we realized that it had gone.

We associate time with many things and think of it in many ways. In terms of numbers and units it means four minutes to get to a class or two hours of homework a night or only three months before graduation. But more important, it means good times and crucial times and “remember the time . . .” and not enough time, and the last time.

This is the way we have tried to express time in the pages of MAST, to remind us of our years at Garden City High School.

ROBERT RICHMOND

Dedication

AS SPONSOR, TEACHER AND FRIEND, this is the man whose patience and efforts are most gratefully appreciated by the class of '64. He has been much more than an advisor who led when leadership was necessary and wisely abstained when it was not. Helping and defending us when we were wrong and faithfully supporting us when we were right, he has given his time and his ideas to unify a class that has asked much of him.

In a world where science is becoming increasingly important, his painstaking explanations have stimulated his students and his fair judgment has earned their respect. As a teacher he has a difficult and challenging task to perform, and he faces it with quiet dignity and strength that earn him the admiration of students and teachers alike.

GARDEN CITY SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The Year in Review

"Senior privileges si . . . homework no."

"Bruce, there's room for three copies of Lady Chat . . ."

WE OFFICIALLY BECAME Seniors at the Casino Reunion Dance on the third of September. Everyone stood around discussing summer jobs, the march on Washington, and the new Stewart School annex until the band arrived a mere hour and a half late; then class sponsor Mr. Richmond introduced our two unforgettable exchange students, Pierre and Lisbet, and our hardworking class officers.

Somehow summer ended, and September came with herds of frantic Seniors storming the guidance office to ask for advice, add or drop courses, or just complain. Confusion reigned as the sophs, who suddenly seemed remote and insignificant, were transported back and forth to Stewart School. Senior superiority was quickly asserted when bitter controversy over "standing for Seniors" was reopened—and settled with a shaved head.

It seemed that everybody had gone to Europe, and two long exchange student assemblies set the pace for a very international year, complete with a new International Club sponsored by Miss Boken and Pierre Meyrat.

The Class of '64 opened the school social season on September 20th with a Carousel Dance, successfully organized by social chairmen Judy Radocy and Jan McKenna. Although there had been some doubt as to whether we'd have a mascot in time, Class President Tom Schenck triumphantly unveiled Kon Tiki, an honest-to-goodness good luck symbol, and proud representative of the "Biggest and the Best." Kon was duly paid homage by a select group of girls who knelt before him singing, "We love you, Kon, Oh, yes, we do-oo."

That night some mysterious Garden Cityites sowed their wild oats with paint brushes, and for several weeks after the walls of the high school remained adorned with the class numbers '64, '65 and '66, and unexplainable #717. The craze spread and class numbers appeared not only on lamp posts and sidewalks all over town, but so on the Great Neck North

High School on the eve of our first football game, while the indignant administration conducted an unsuccessful search for the culprits.

Our prize-winning turnout at the Fall Pep Rally proved conclusively that if the Class of '64 had nothing else, it had spirit. "Team plus Spirit equals Victory" was this year's motto, as proclaimed by ever-enthusiastic senior cheerleader, Ed Kelly. Remembering last year's mascot crisis, theft-wary seniors provided Kon with the Hearse of '64. Eight hundred strong, G.C. fans proceeded to the Great Neck North football field, where we not only outnumbered the home fans, but beat their team in the bargain. We could tell it was going to be a good year!

The Student Council recognized inflation by raising the price of the G.O. to $4.00, and a week later the annual magazine drive got off to a flying start with Mr. McCleary serving as Master of Ceremonies and Jan McKenna providing the backstage labor. The Seniors attempted to make up for their failure to sell magazines with a fairly lucrative Senior Bridge; however, the Class of '64 faced financial difficulties because of unexpected expenses involved in the school-painting-scandal.

Meanwhile we were demonstrating both intelligence and versatility. In the annual Talent Assembly, Seniors Long, Fritz, Schenkel, Steinle, Thomas, Landis, LeGette, and Setian highlighted an afternoon of music with moods ranging from honky-tonk to classical. On the academic side too, the Biggest was one of the Best. Thirty-five National Merit Letters of Commendation and seven semi finalists amply indicated Senior classroom proficiency.

By late October our athletic squads had already begun to bring home laurels. Garden City's football team, paced by co-captains Frank Quayle and Greg Herbert, was undefeated after three league contests. The soccer team looked invincible as depth and skill produced six consecutive victories. As November came, we all felt the tension of the coming football game with arch-rival Mineola, perhaps our best chance ever to unseat the perennial champs. But alas! On a wet, muddy November day, we dropped a bitterly contested 13-12 decision to "Gehrke's Goons." Our hard-nosed defensive play almost nullified six G.C. fumbles, and the heart-breaking loss was nothing for the team to be ashamed of.

Amid the flurry of report cards, election slogans and snow, winter fast approached. Our soccer team came within an ace of taking the division championship as we lost 1-0 to a strong Great Neck North in a tense double-overtime playoff. On the romantic side, the Sadie Hawkins Dance brought hope to the hearts of many of G.C.'s fairest.

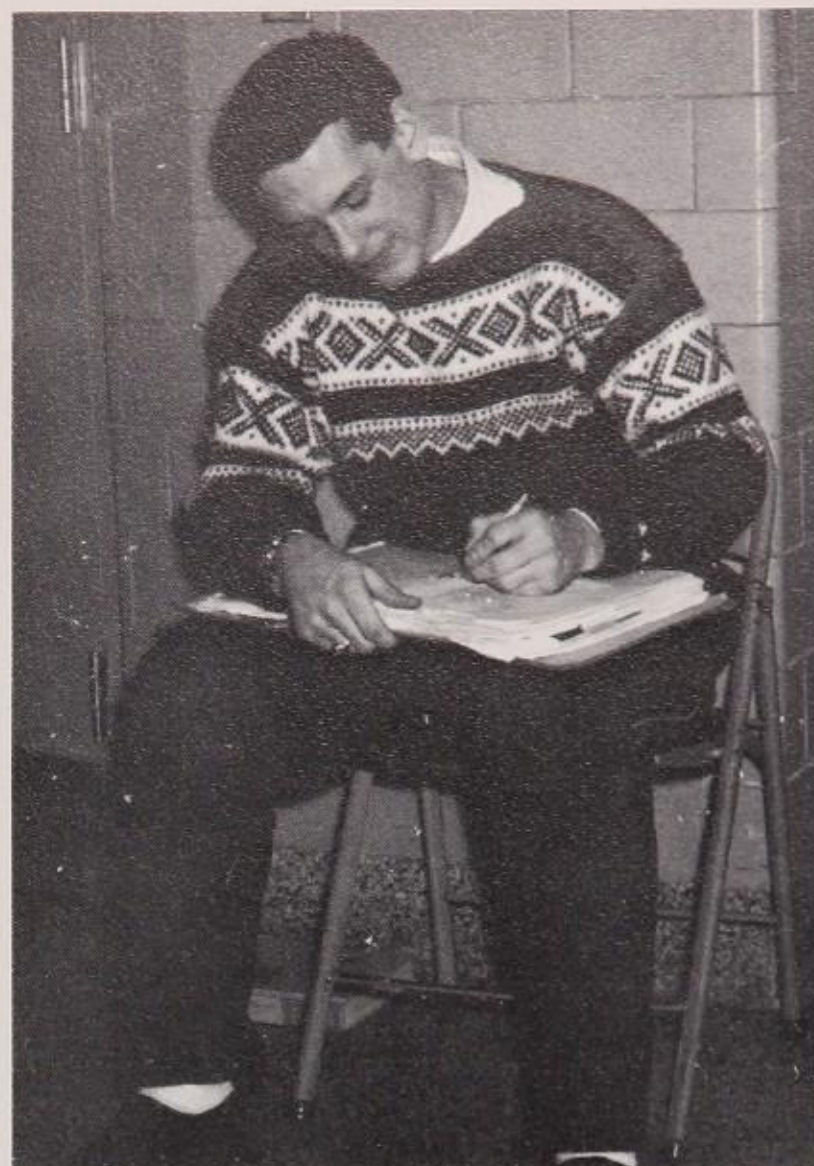

The death of President Kennedy stunned and saddened the whole school. The Masquers show, Blithe Spirit, was postponed until the following Tuesday, when a brave, mostly Senior cast gave a polished, if anti-climactic performance. The school settled into a sombre, thoughtful Thanksgiving vacation. But life went on, and festive December turned our thoughts to other things. College Boards, early acceptances, a new sports season, Christmas . . . even the most conscientious could not help succumbing to the distractions of the season.

Student Council President Bill McDavid and the high school's choral organizations were featured in the traditional tree-lighting ceremony. The choral groups, led by the talented composer-conductor Mr. Konowitz, presented a varied and unusual Christmas concert the following night. Instrumental musicians also partook of the holiday atmosphere in their own concert a few days later. The Fall Awards Assembly seemed to put a cap on the old year, while the Student Council Dance promised festivities in ushering in the new. Faced with a rough decision, President Bill McDavid picked

After much deliberation and heated debate, Seniors were finally granted full privileges including use of the lobby and special senior study-halls. Privileges had been withheld first quarter because of the confusion of the Sophomore Shuttle and because of the size of the Senior Class.

To welcome in "our" year, the Class of '64 duly made—and duly broke—our good resolutions. Settling back into school routine after ten days of freedom, we breezed through our last set of midyears and chewed our finger nails as we waited for word from the colleges of our choice. In January we said good-by to our Most Popular Teacher, Mr. Formisano, now Garden City's ambassador to Kenya, and welcomed Dr. St. James, his replacement from Chicago. The first semester finally curled up and died—it seemed that only yesterday we had entered school with such grand anticipations. Winter weather and Beatlemania had taken possession of us as we started the second semester. Abe and George provided us with a day's rest, as did two snow days resulting from the biggest snow storm we could remember. The Honor Society induction ceremony, directed by President Dot Setian and made memorable by Speaker Mr. Miner and a smoking motor in the lectern, brought Spring into the hearts of sixty-six G.C. scholars and their proud parents. Echo, Ink Spots and Mast raced for deadlines, while the class of '64 polished up those senior themes.

It was a brooding time, a reflective time—we mourned the death of ex-Superintendent Frank Wassung, author of our Alma Mater; Echo Editor Hank Carde staged an attack on smoking to follow up the government's recently published study. But we looked forward as well as back. What was past was a memorable Senior Year; what was ahead of us would be unforgettable. Nothing but good could come to us now. We would see a wonderful P.T.A. presentation of The King and I, we would have a fun-filled Senior party. We would bounce back from Easter vacation full of hope and covered with Florida tan. We would laugh and learn on Student Teacher Day, and watch the Juniors struggle as we did a year ago at election time. There would be the Father-Daughter Party, the Masquer's play, our final Awards Assembly, the Picnic, Prom . . . and Graduation, with white dresses, sweetheart roses and nostalgia. As the Mast went to press, spring was gathering its forces for a final assault on winter. Nothing but the best was in store for the "Biggest and the Best."

place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans
—born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of their ancient heritage—and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed, and to which we are committed today at home and around the world.”

STUDENT COUNCIL

Every Thursday in the cafeteria, the Student Council, the school's deliberative body, may be found probing the sensitive issues of the day. Far from the stuffy austerity that the word "deliberative" evokes, however, the Council carries out its duties with a mixture of energy and responsibility that fascinates the spectator.

The dynamic leadership of the Executive Board is evident in all facets of Student Council activity. The Board has shown a concern for democracy in their efforts to improve homeroom meetings, while an unprecedented civic spirit was demonstrated in their newest conception, a "Keep-Garden-City-Clean" campaign. The sensitive guidance of sponsors Mr. Tegnell and Miss Snyder has earned the respect of the Council and the school.

The influence of the Student Council permeates the life of every Garden City High School student. Not only does it afford him the opportunity to air his gripes and suggestions, but it coordinates the extracurricular activities in which he takes part. The Student Council has a tough job and does it well.

STUDENT CITIZENSHIP BOARD

A group of conscientious, responsible students elected by their own class make up the Student Citizenship Board. Their primary function is to serve as an example of good citizenship for the entire student body. In connection with this purpose, Mrs. Schnaubelt's "Bulldogs," as they are fondly called, are on constant patrol in the halls, parking lot and cafeteria, to give warnings and issue tickets to offenders. Through tireless effort, the S.C.B.'s have made our school a better place in which to work.

Working in conjunction with the Student Citizenship Board, the Student Court is also a branch of school government. The court, which comprises Chief Justice Jacques LeGette, a justice from each grade, two justices-at-large, a bailiff and a clerk, meets each Friday afternoon. At this time, the court handles tickets, tries cases and deliberates constitutional questions, performing an extremely difficult and valuable service.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each year top students of the Junior and Senior classes are inducted into the National Honor Society on the basis of their scholarship, leadership, citizenship and service. At this year's induction, unusually thought-provoking addresses were presented by President Dorothy Setian and Mr. Miner. Members of the Honor Society meet once a month to compute honor rating forms and compile the quarterly Honor Roll.

ECHO

The lobby is deluged with stack upon stack of newspapers and students gobbling lunch in the cafeteria seem to have sprouted a paper appendage. The Echo is out! For a few brief moments the myriad of reporters, writers, typists, and proof-readers on the Echo can take a breather. But within the wink of an eye Editor-in-Chief Hank Carde is cracking the whip again and the next issue begins to roll. Managing Editor Steve Adams scuttles in and out of the Echo office at a breathless pace, and sponsor Mrs. Reppert rides herd on the entire operation. In spite of several printing difficulties, the staff has turned out an unfailing, superlative paper which includes factual news articles, sports reports, features, Senior and Faculty Snaps, and an admirable editorial column. The tireless efforts of the Echo staff have kept the student body well-informed on every school issue.

INKSPOTS

Inkspots is our school's literary magazine. With inspiration from Editor Martha Tuck and the magazine's sponsor, Mr. Wardner, the Literary Staff selects notable short stories, poems, and essays to be published in the magazine, which appears annually. Illustrations and lay-out are the responsibility of the Art Staff. The resulting publication is a superior one. Inkspots is interesting and enjoyable to read, and gives both our budding and accomplished authors a chance for self-expression.

MAST

A shady nook in the Activity Office is always the scene of frenetic activity. This year's faithful Mast staff has been continually sifting, correlating, transcribing, and laboring to produce the Best Yearbook Ever!

Under the intrepid leadership of Sir Pooh de Hahn and Sue ("Profondeur") Rosengarten, the staff has revised format and production methods to piece together a big, new Mast for the "Biggest and the Best." Starting last summer, they worked afternoons and Saturdays, their moods ranging from nonchalance ("Deadline two weeks ago—who cares?") to despondence ("Nobody listens to Andrew."). The culmination of their efforts is in your hands now.

PRESS CLUB

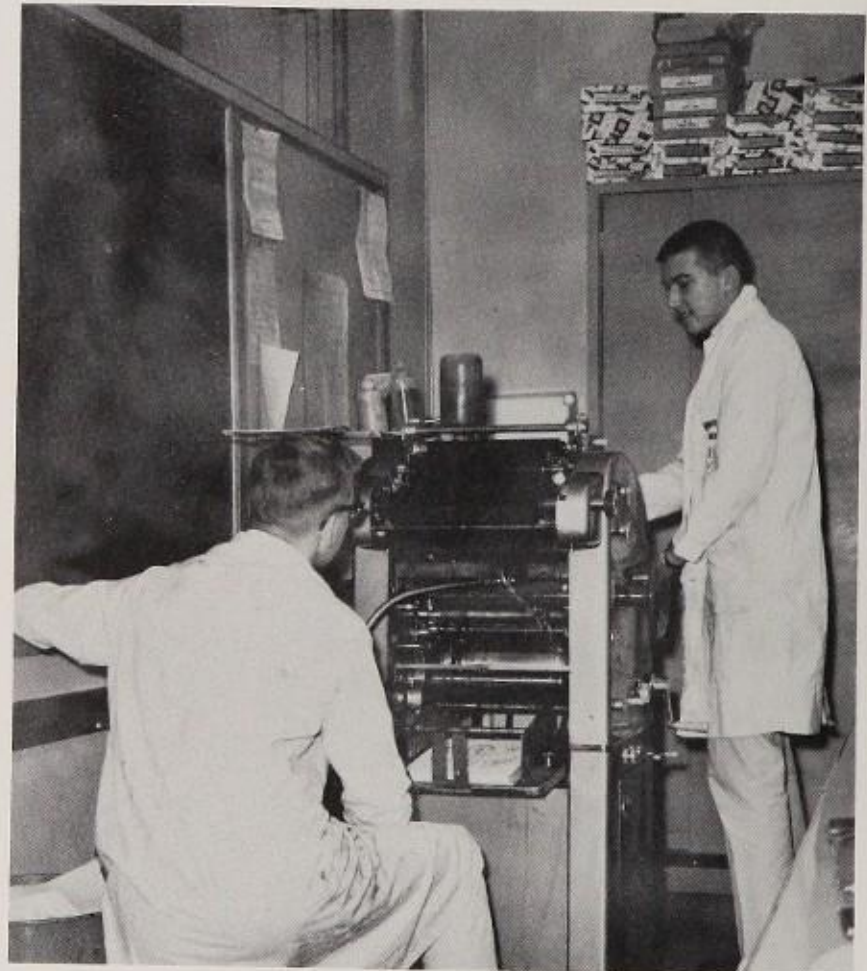

The Press Club is designed to encourage membership in school publications, teach the art of journalistic writing and interest students in the field of journalism. Mrs. Reppert willingly lends a hand as sponsor. The Press Club is a member of Quill and Scroll, a national society of school publications.

OFF-SET CLUB

The Off-Set Club operates a student-purchased A. B. Dick offset applicator. Without the help of this committee, our students and faculty would be without the Trojan Handbook, play and concert programs, announcements of sporting events, foreign language publications and material for many other activities.

TECHNICAL DIRECTORS

In their somewhat routine daily schedule, one thing that keeps faculty members guessing is whether or not John Cuff and Dick Kiley will be in class, and if so, for how long. When an emergency arises with any technical equipment in the school, they are called upon to handle the situation. Two of the school's busiest and most gifted students, the Technical Directors are in charge of the daily bulletin and sound for assemblies, shows and sporting events.

MAGAZINE DRIVE

The annual Magazine Drive is the main source of income for each class treasury. Three weeks after the opening of school, student salesmen dashed frantically from door to door in an effort to sell their quota of Look Publications. Chairman Jan McKenna, Assistant Chairmen Pam Ryan, Nance Dieckman, Sue Lucci, Sue Walb, and the Junior apprentices kept track of sales, performed accounting tasks and distributed prizes.

STUDENT STORE

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Arnold, a small band of faithful has given its time to the maintenance of a service unnoticed by many students—the running of the Student Store. This isn't a job for the glory boys—the chief compensation is the knowledge of a job well done. The Student Store workers deserve the thanks of the student body for their fine efforts this year.

Some time during his high school career, each student has visited the Nurse's Office and been greeted by a lovely girl with an understanding smile. The F.N.A. acquaints girls with the field of nursing through guest speakers and visits to hospitals.

HUMANITIES CLUB

Students dedicated to the arts flock to the meetings of the Humanities Club. Among programs presented this year was a Yoga demonstration by Pierre Meyrat, a hootenanny led by Miss Kendall, and a discussion of the novels of Ayn Rand moderated by Hank Carde. Interest in the American Field Service led to the birth of the International Club within the Humanities Club. The International Club hopes to foster greater interest in exchange activities and travel abroad.

BAND

Displaying loyalty and vivacious spirit, this year's Band ranks among the best. Under the fine leadership of Director Donald Chadderdon and President Jacques LeGette, the musicians began the year as a marching unit, with a spirit-sparking performance at the traditional Pep Rally. The Band spent many a chilly Saturday morning tramping around the athletic field, perfecting the football half-time shows which Mr. Chadderdon skillfully created. The praise given the Band by Mr. Thompson at the Fall Awards Assembly and the admiration the Band has won from the entire student body are well-deserved.

As the football season drew to a close, the marching band turned concert band with amazing versatility. The Christmas Concert was impressive—complete with special lighting effects, a poetry selection, and beautiful Christmas music. After the Christmas season, the Band presented a superlative mid-winter concert and dance. The year was concluded with the Band's performance at the Memorial Day parade.

Stagecraft and lighting are competently handled by Mr. Goodwin and his crew, and beautiful sets for each play are born in the dark depths of the Green Room.

This year Masquers gave a fine performance of Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit, and topped all past records with a mammoth production of the P.T.A. Show, The King and I. We look forward eagerly to Masquers' spring play.

Pre-season scrimmages indicated the potential of this year's team as the varsity rolled over six teams consecutively. It looked as though the team could send in one powerful speedy halfback after another and sooner or later demolish any opposing team's line. After much jockeying around during the season, members of the team took over their final positions.

The backfield was the home of the co-captains, halfbacks Greg Herbert and Frank Quayle, who saw and did a lot more with the ball than they did last year. Great helps to the team were Mark Scotti, John Vietch and sophomore Bill Sheldon. The quarterbacks were Ron Meyer and Dorsey Lynch. Fullbacks Marty Fuller and Tom Schenck provided additional power.

"Heads we receive, tails you kick off."

"Will the real 'Player of the Year' please stand up?"

"Let me see it, let me see it!"

One of the pivotal parts of the team was the line. Although outweighed by most other lines, it made up for its size in excellent down field blocking. Offensive-tackle positions were held by Todd Middleton and Dick Conway. John Frasca and Bob Healy played offensive-ends. The guards were Dick McGuinness, Bruce McClean and Steve McConnell and Terry Kirby did most of the centering. Defensively the team usually operated from a 5-4 lineup, with Todd Middleton and Bob Healy as ends, Chuck Lewis and Vic Natiello as tackles, and Dick McGuinness or Bruce McClean in center guard position. Terry Kirby and Dick Conway took the middle-linebacker spots, Marty Fuller, Greg Herbert and Bill Sheldon rotated as half-backs, and Frank Quayle and Tom Schenk took the outside linebacker positions. Dave Lawton did the kicking for the Trojans.

SEASON RECORD

	G.C.	Opp.

Herricks	26	13
Port Washington	6	13
Manhasset	0	13

Lynch starts the game.

The season started with a big kickoff rally in the morning and a SPIRITED 6-0 shut-out over Great Neck North. G.C.'s 205 yards rushing to G.N.N.'s 70 and our 14 first downs to their 4 indicated the potential of our team. Outstanding plays were made by Bill Sheldon and by Capt. Frank Quayle, who scored G.C.'s points on a 50 yard double reverse play.

Next week the team failed to play consistently well and dropped a 0-6 decision to Svosset. The ball moved well for both teams outside of the twenty yard line. Outstanding players were Dick McGinnis, Chuck Lewis, Terry Kirby, Tom Schenck and Dave Lawton.

Great Neck South felt the revived fury of the team the next week as four players were injured in a 13-0 shut-out. Standout performance by Marty Fuller sparked the offense, as he raced for 52 and 75 yards in two of his attempts.

Division Avenue entered the burn-of-the-week club as the Trojans showed tremendous power and ability in crushing them 19-0. Frank Quayle moved to the 5 yard line on the first play, and Bob Schumacher recovered a fumble in the third quarter and ran for a 40-yard touchdown. The defensive line of Todd Middleton, Dick Conway, Chuck Lewis, Frank Quayle, Dick McGinnis, Terry Kirby and Vic Natiello was invincible.

Mineola came back in the second half to post a 13-12 win over us. A wet day cut our passing threat, and the strong Mineola team ate up ground and scored.

In the last two games we were beaten by Port Washington 6-13 in the last few seconds, and the anticlimactic Manhasset match was lost 0-13.

"When did you first notice the shoe in your mouth?"

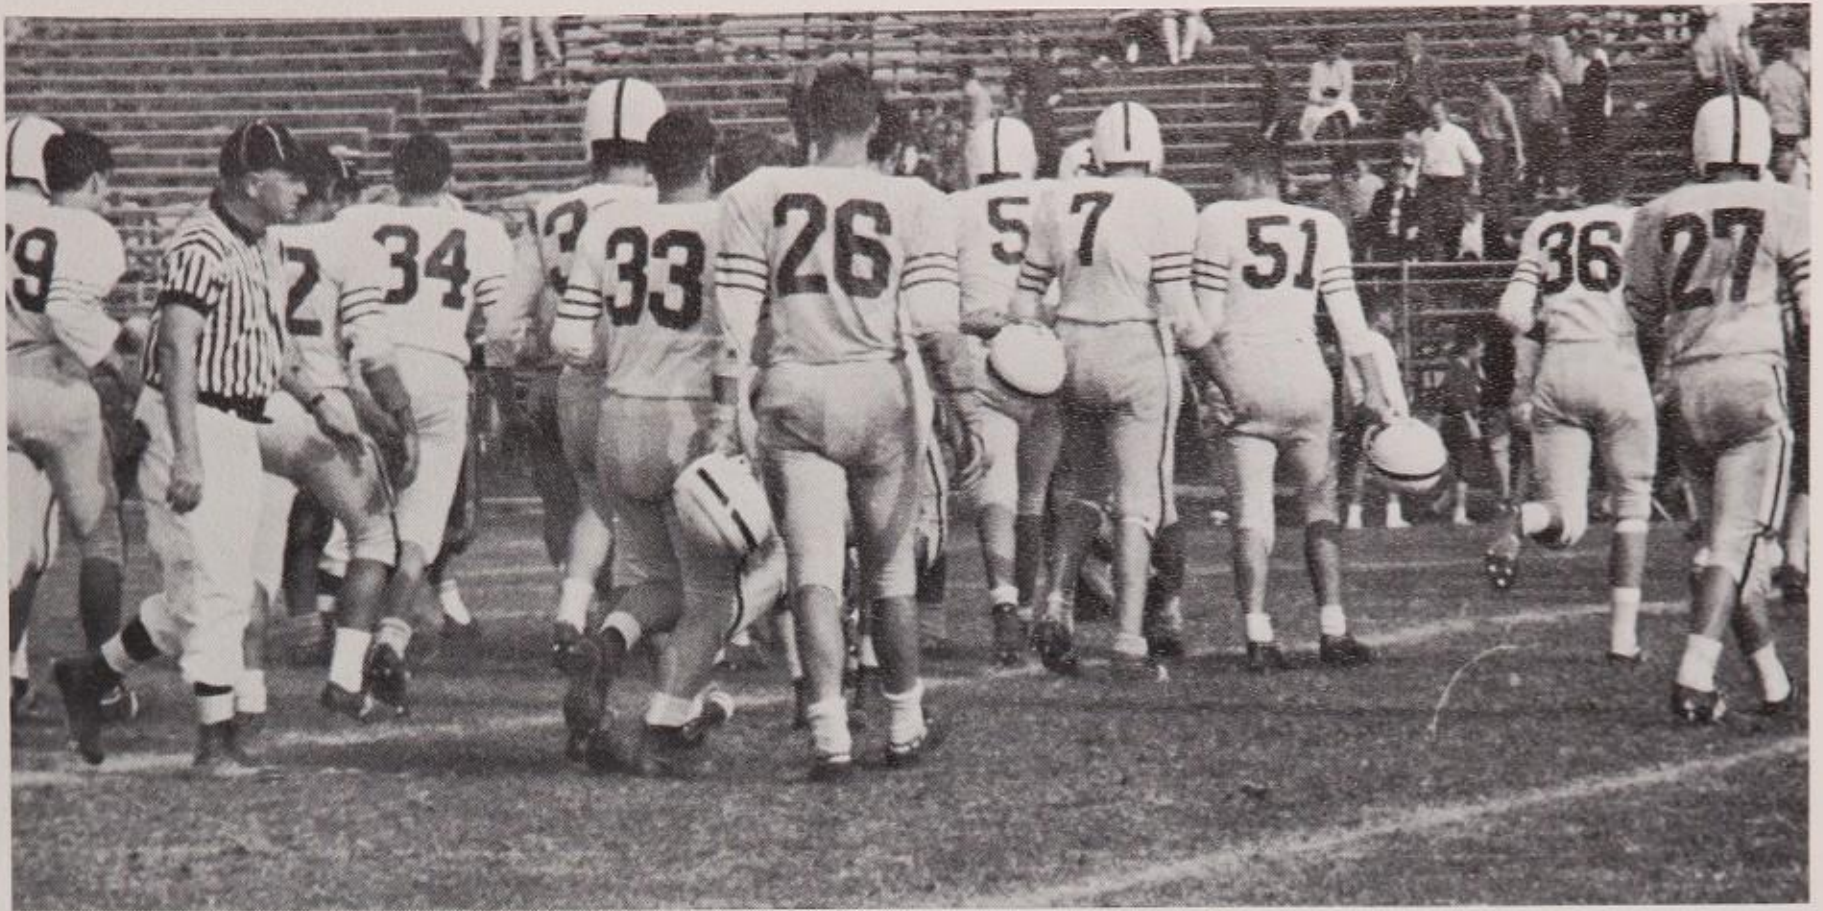

Coach Riffle gives inspiration.

"It all happened when I was a little baby."

Quayle tries an end run.

"Are you sure there's a boys' room over there?"

Frasca looks on helplessly.

The unwritten chores of President Schenck.

Soccer

The soccer team made another strong bid for the league championship this year, but a mid-season slump and a freak goal in the playoff match kept them from it.

Led by Captain Jon Jeans, the team started off with a 2-1 victory over Great Neck South. The score did not completely indicate the play of the game, because the Trojans had the ball threatening the enemy's goal most of the game. A goal was provided by Bill Blanchard, and the deciding point was gained of a spectacular shot by Geoff Woglom. This victory was followed quickly by a 2-0 shutout over Division Ave., with Bill Blanchard and Jeff Tobais scoring for G.C. In the next match, the line made shambles of a poor Great Neck North defense in beating them 4-2. In a non-league game against a tough North Shore team, Captain Jeans made his first score and Lyle Johnson scored the winning goal in overtime. The team beat Mineola 4-0, then Herricks 1-0.

At this point injuries and illness caused the Trojans some trouble. The line consisting of Tom Hipp, Paul LeSueur, Bill Blanchard, Jeff Tobais, and Lyle Johnson, was shifted continually to find a scoring combination, with Bill Schlosser and Bob Jackson seeing action also. In the halfback slots, junior Bob Tobais, Tom Chapman, Jon Jeans, and Geoff Woglom also switched around quite a bit, with Jon Jeans going up on the line in crucial situations. The fullback positions were ably held down by Bob Lutkowski and junior Gene Uchaz, while junior Rick Harken took over Bill Peters' goalie position toward the end of the year due to a leg injury.

The mid-season slump began with a 1-2 loss to Port Washington, Jon Jeans making our goal. The next three games saw a 0-0 tie with Great Neck South, a 0-1 loss to Division Avenue and finally a 1-1 tie with Great Neck North to tie with them for first place. Special mention must be made for our defense, since Great Neck North's offense usually demolished teams by three or more points. The rest of the games were G.C. victories, which led to a play-off match with North.

The match was played on a dismal day at Hofstra, and four periods of play produced only a 0-0 deadlock. After the first overtime, the score still remained 0-0. Then a sudden death overtime was called. A freak goal gave Great Neck North a 0-1 victory.

Next year's team will miss many experienced members of this year's team, but a strong nucleus of Lyle Johnson, Jeff Tobias, Bob Tobias, Gene Uchaz and Bill Butz should be enough to develop a good team. Coach Steen felt that one little break was the only thing keeping this year's team from a championship.

Both Jon Jeans and Bill Blanchard deserve special mention for making the All-Scholastic team.

TENNIS

The tennis team, led by Captain John Fitzpatrick, posted a 5-5 record this season. Playing in probably the roughest league in the nation, this is not bad.

Coach Chief Corbridge worked the team into good shape, and felt that in any other league they would have shown up much better. Promising members for next year's team are Jeff Raymond and Ted Sauer.

Jackson leads the pack.

The cross country team, led by Co-captains Pete Simons and Steve McKeon, had probably the strongest group of runners in G.C.'s history, but competition was also the strongest. In the first meet the team was beaten by Port Washington by a few points, completely unexpected. In the next meet, a triangular one against Great Neck North and Herricks, the Trojan harriers retaliated by actually beating the combined runners of the opposing teams. The team then lost to Great Neck South because of illness, then clobbered Mineola. In the County meet the runners showed their true form, coming in 6th, with only Port Washington beating them in their league. Coach Bruni did his usual job of cheering the team and served as the auxiliary capacity of Keeper of the Mascot, a turtle of astounding speed.

BASKETBALL

This year's team on the basketball courts was characterized by a lack of steady ball control. Often it was in a duel against another team alternating baskets for some time only to lose the ball on a bad pass and fall behind. To gain points the Trojans took to shooting from the outside; Jack Farrell, Jacques LeGette and Bob Healy led in this type of endeavor. Lean, leaping Jack O'Connor, at center position, picked many stray shots off the backboard and made them count.

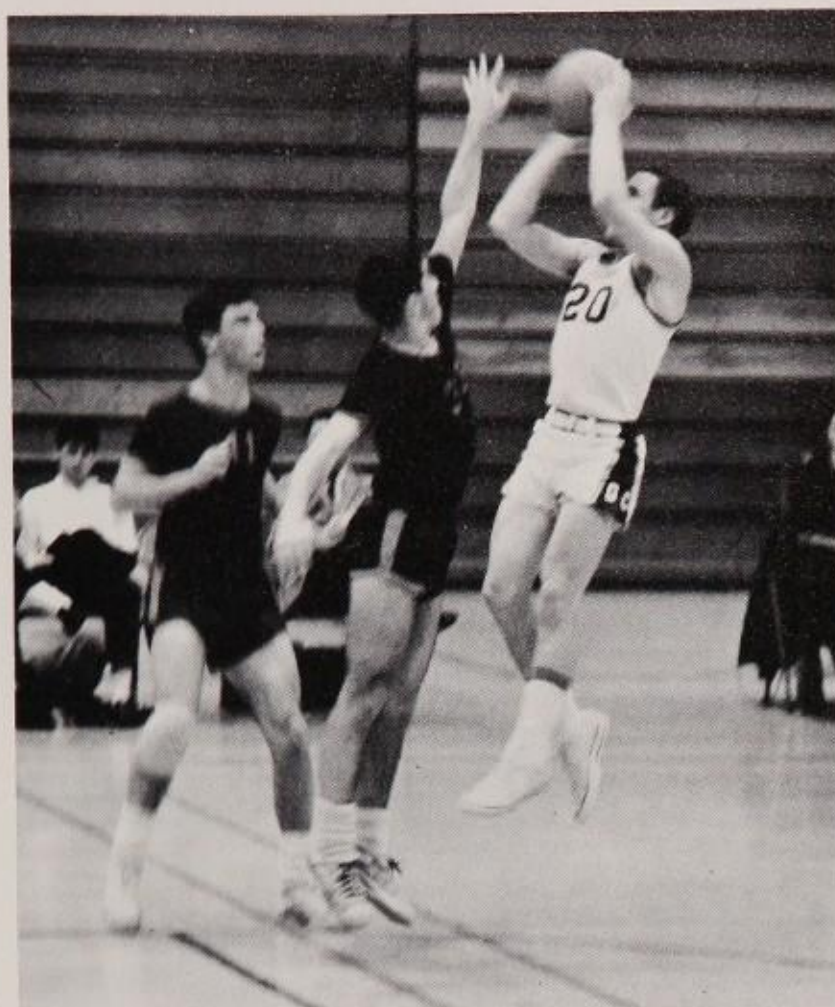

Under the new timing rule in which the clock is stopped every time the whistle is blown the first game of the season started off with a bang, as G.C. annihilated a poor Floral Park team 92-57. Leaders in this rout were John Garrett, with 25 points, Jacques LeGette, with 18 points, and Jack Farrell, with 14. Never again was such a group of fine performances to come in, as the team members alternately had hot and cold days. At Roslyn, the team didn't do as well, losing to a hot Roslyn five.

LeGette's shot blocked.

Farrell does a ballet.

Healy shoots a jump-shot.

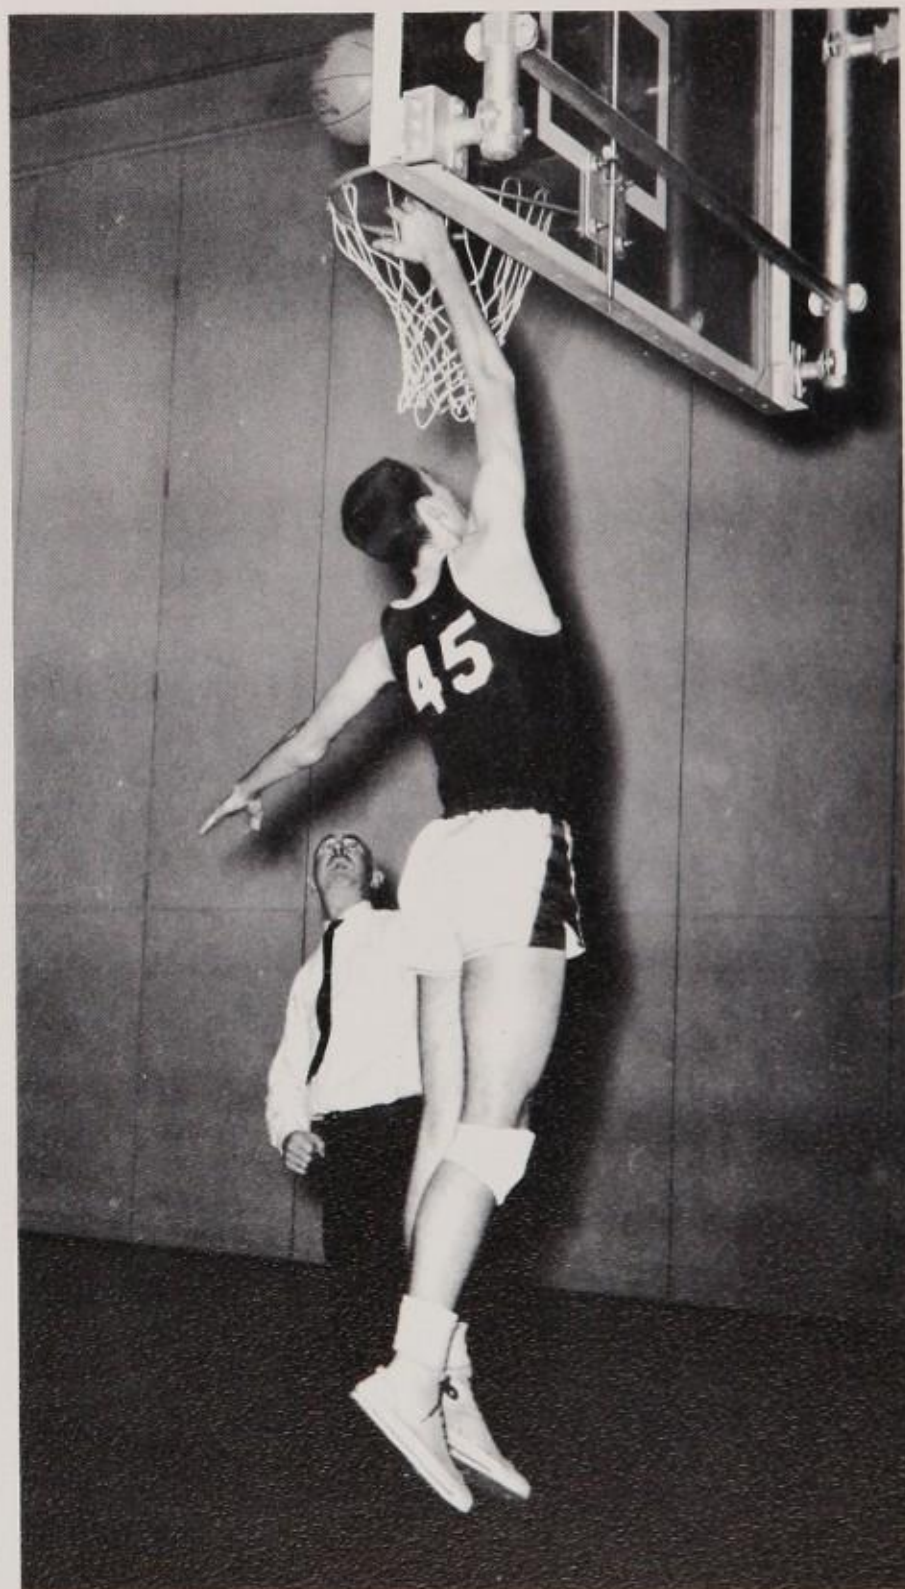

In the Christmas tournament G.C. placed third, losing to Westbury, and defeating Herricks in the second match. The home game against Mineola was a high-pitched one, as a last quarter rally by our five brought them even with the Mustangs and momentarily saw them take the lead. Then fouls took their toll, and G.C. eventually lost by eight points. At home the team beat Manhasset then lost an away match to Farmingdale by one point in a tension-filled game. In the next game our team lost by three points to Division Avenue at home.

The Trojans proceeded to win only three games of the remaining eight, seemingly discouraged by this series of close losses. Bright spots in the latter part of the season were provided by Jack Farrell and Bob Healy, who both turned in consistently good performances. Jack's high point was a 23 pointer against Herricks, while Bob scored 25 points in a nearly single-handed battle against arch-rival Mineola.

Coach Steen had many words of praise for the efforts put out by the members of the basketball squad, and felt that they had been up against unusually rough competition this year. Next year the Trojans should have something they have been lacking for a while, lots of height. Some fine playing should be seen from Jim Roth, Howie Gardner, Bill Butz and Steve Latson.

WRESTLING

The Garden City wrestling team was a competitive one, with many changes made during the year. Varsity action was given to many underclassmen, who should form a solid nucleus for next year's team. The team started off by beating Glen Cove decisively, then losing to the south shore powerhouse Wheatley. They then pulled a stunning upset and brought home first place in the Christmas Tournament at Rockville Centre. Ed McLaughlin and Bret Schiffner won individual titles in their weights and Dick Stern tied for first place.

Next, the team was smashed by Calhoun and retaliated by defeating Bethpage soundly. The won and lost deadlock was not moved as they beat Manhasset, then lost to Island Trees. A loss to Division Avenue and a powerful defeat over Port Washington kept the wins and losses even. In the last five matches, though, we only came through twice to crush our arch-rival Mineola, and beat a strong Carle Place team. Four times in the season, the team piled up 38 points for big victories, but the season ended in a 6-7 record. Post-season tournaments were disappointing, but Bob Schumacher came in second in the North Shores, while sophomore Bill Green beat the North Shore champion to gain a fourth place in the counties

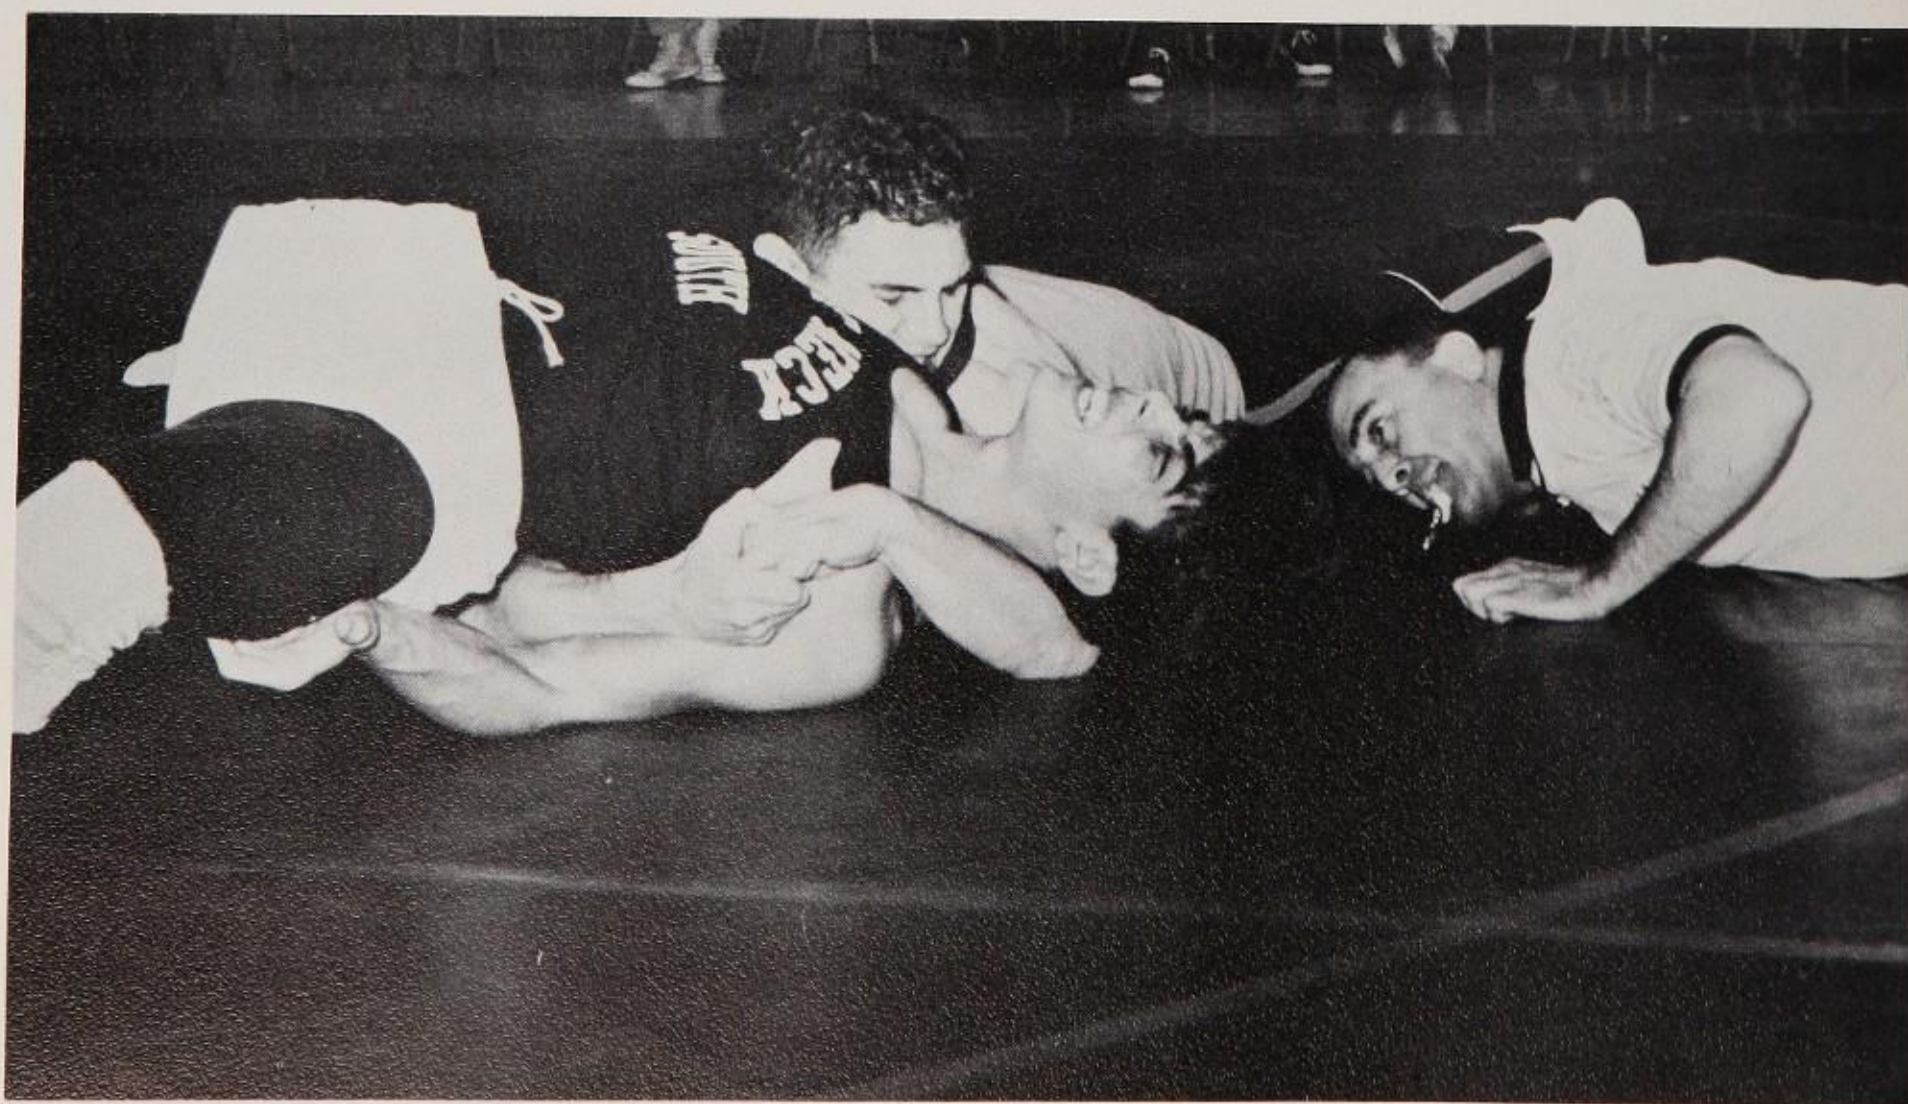

Individual records of outstanding merit are Lyle Johnson (8-2-1), Bill Blanchard (8-3), Capt. Fred Schmitt (8-4), Bob Schumacher (6-2), Bill Green (6-4), Ed McLaughlin (4-1) and Capt. Brett Schiftner (8-5). Brett Schiftner often wrestled in higher classes to fill empty spaces and sometimes was found considerably outweighed by an opponent.

Work was the reason for the good showing in many matches this year, and both the coaches, Mr. Decker and Mr. Leet, and the captains, Fred Schmitt and Brett Schiftner, are to be praised for a great effort.

RIFLERY

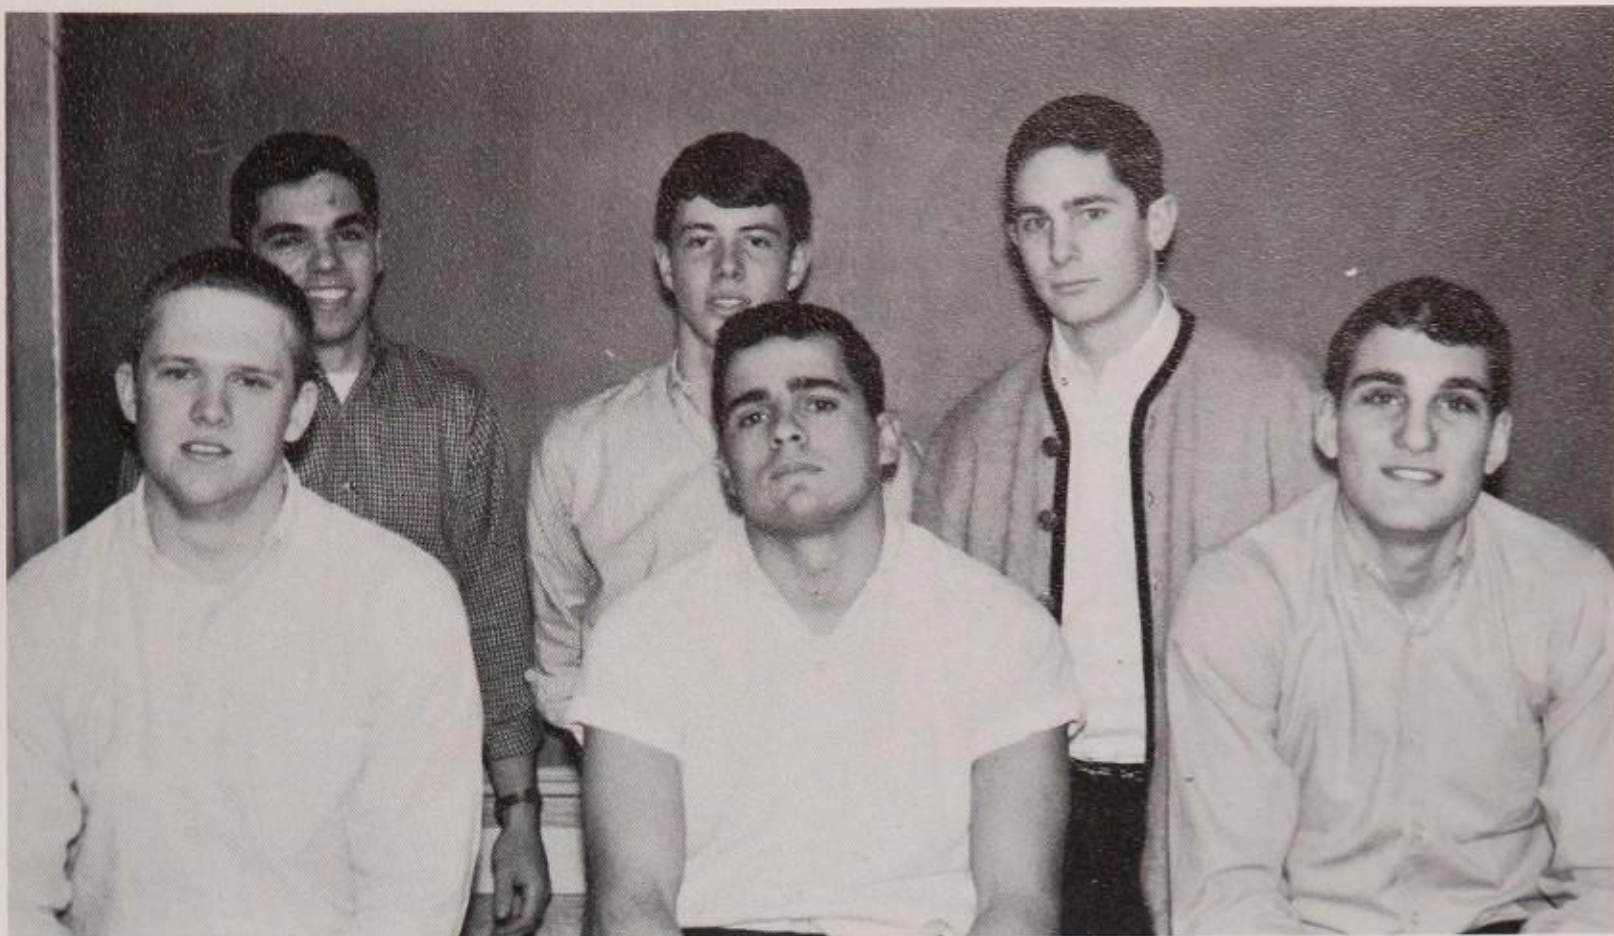

The team's record of 4-10 was disappointing to Coach Cunningham and the team. Junior John Smithson established the best season average, 181, to come out 24th in the county. Other high average men were junior Jay Parks (172), sophomore Art Greer (169), junior John Peters (167) and Capt. Tom Laboda, with a 164.5 average. With many returnees next year's team should do very well.

VARSITY—Bottom row: S. Shaw, G. Shotton, D. Wikstrom. Second row: V. Rapp, M. Kelly, Mr. Biviano.

BOWLING

Under the coaching of Joseph Biviano, the Bowling Team put up a good fight this year. Leading bowler, Morgan Kelly, spurred the team on to many victories. With many juniors on the team, the prospects for next season look great. The team hopes that many underclassmen will help them fill the ranks next year.

INTRAMURALS

Intramurals continued the practice of using unusual names for teams which was started last year. Mr. Riffle devoted many hours after school calling, "Flagrant foul," and "Over the net," as G.C.'s basketball and volleyball dabblers played frantically. After the shifting had stopped and the dust had settled, Cliff Enderle's team and the Chinese Bandits had gathered the titles for the I.B.L. and I.V.L., respectively.

TRACK

Since many of last year's big point-getters, notably Vic Emerson, Don Riccio, and Rusty Madigan have left, the members of the track team are going to have to work extremely hard this season to pull a league championship out of the bag this year as they did last year.

Distance runners include strong entries in every event, with seniors Steve McKeon, Pete Simons, Tom Hipp, and Roger Jackson expected to do well, with juniors Pat Rohan, Bob Eisen, and Bill Franz close behind.

In the jumping pits, co-captain Tom Chapman will break his own record in the hop-step-and-jump and should also score in the broad jump. Juniors Bill Brennan and Gene Uchaz are our hottest prospects in the pole vault and high jump, respectively. Coach Horton's field men are led by junior Lou Denegris in the shot put and senior Pat Orsini in the discus.

Sprint prospects are bright, with co-captain Al Vanasco leading and sophomores Bill Sheldon and Jim Roth right behind. The hurdles events are complete toss-ups, with Dick Dillon and Jim Dooley as the top early performers.

What the team lacks is depth, for individual events and for relays. However, Coaches King and Horton are hoping for development of some back-up men by the time the season gets under way.

If all predictions are correct, this year's lacrosse team should be G.C.'s best of all time. Ten men of last year's squad, which only lost to state champions Manhasset by one goal last year, are returning and ready to get their revenge. Co-captains Dick Conway and Geof Woglom are leading the list of returnees, Dick playing at midfield and Geof at defense. Other midfielders are Todd Middleton and Bob Schumacher, backed up by Ron Meyer, Frank Quayle and sophomore Charlie Rullman. Goalie Bill Morgan, attack men Bill Blanchard and Pete Kirk and defense men Terry Kirby and Hank Murphy comprise the rest of the returning players. New men expected to make good are Russ Bankes, Steve Latson, Gary Brauns and Craig Lemrow.

The team has speed, strength and depth. Key games will probably be the early one against Manhasset, Mineola and those against MacArthur. Much will depend on how fast our boys can get in shape.

Coach Silvestri is looking forward to this season, and may well be rewarded.

BASEBALL

This year's season should prove to be the reverse of last year's poor 4-14 performance of the Varsity Baseball team.

The strong points of the team this year will be pitching and offensive play. Three of last year's starting pitchers are returning to the mound for what appears to be a strong season. They are Seniors Jacques LeGette, Bill Peters, and Bruce Keuling. Behind them are Juniors Rick Harken and Bill Reina. The newly acquired pitching machine, bought by the Men's Association and called "Iron Mike," should prove to be invaluable to G. C.'s clubmen. The heavy hitting should come from co-captains Vic Natiello and John Frasca, along with Mark Scotti and Bruce Keuling. Speed will play an important part in G.C.'s strategy with such speed-demons as John Frasca and Tom Schenck burning up the base paths.

On defense, the team will have Mark Scotti, Tom Schenck, Bob Healy, and Bruce Keuling rounding out the infield. Seniors Bob Jackson and Bob Cappello will be catching, while Vic Natiello, John Frasca, and Bob Tobais will handle the outfield. Juniors Bob Stone, Joe Melchoir, Bob Daley, Lyle Johnson, and Ricky Bush will be fighting for positions.

G.C. will play the same team three times in one week—a procedure that was initiated last year. The competition is expected to come from Great Neck South and Mineola, with Great Neck North and Port Washington putting up good battles.

All in all, coach Chuch Riffle hopes to have a productive season and maybe even bring a championship to Garden City.

GOLF

Traditionally, Garden City is a power-house in Long Island High School golf competition. This year's golf team, headed by Captain Paul Pickhardt, is expected to maintain that perennial status. Leading this year's team will be Dorcey Lynch, last year's trophy winner who went undefeated in league competition. A lot is expected of seniors Jack O'Connor, Cliff Enderle and Herb Singer, who will be battling for top positions. Juniors Boyd Perry, Bobby Barnes, and Jay Hamrock round out the rest of the squad.

The team will open the season on April 8 against Manhasset. Until then, Garden City's gallant golfers will be practicing to improve their style after a winter away from the fairways. Coach Weiler anticipates a fine showing from this year's squad and hopes to take the entire team to the sectionals.

Since more schools on Long Island have established golf teams, it was necessary to reshuffle teams into different divisions. Before this year teams were placed in divisions according to their ability. Now, however, teams are placed under divisions according to the population of their school. This change now drops Garden City from Division I to Division II with Bethpage, Division Avenue, Manhasset, Port Washington and Clark. Garden City and Port Washington are best bets to clinch the league title.

Last year's team was disqualified from the sectional tournaments for an infraction of the rules. Barring any unseen difficulties, we should see this year's team at the sectionals.

On the whole, prospects look bright and the golf team should have an outstanding season.

HOCKEY

With plenty of potential, and too much confidence, this year's hockey team looked forward to an undefeated season. Although they made a very good showing, their aspirations were not met. In the Field Day, they took second place to Carle Place, out of approximately twelve teams. However, in their regular games, they lost and tied many more than they won.

It appears that there will be more than enough sophomores and juniors to replace this year's seniors—Priscilla Small (center half-back), Becky Nixon (center forward), Sally Rieger (left wing), and Barbara Canivan (right wing). Among them are Jane McDonough, Nancy Serrell, Cathy Locasto, and Sue Hoffman. These four girls will give next year's team the strength it will need for a good season.

Aspirants to the Badminton Team—the first day of badminton practice.

BADMINTON

In past years the turnout for badminton has not been very large. However, this year there was a considerable number of girls representing the sophomore and the senior classes.

From this group, a team was chosen for matches against Great Neck North and Baldwin. These two matches were split, giving Garden City a record of one and one. The annual Sportsday matches were played at Mephram. This year, Garden City placed third.

The strongest members of the team include seniors Kathy Polowchena, Lorraine Heinshon, Robyn Prosek, Barbara Ris, and the number one player, Peggy Scholey.

ARCHERY

Archery is gaining emphasis among the sports-minded girls of Garden City. This is evident in the fact that the team consisted entirely of sophomores. These brave lasses withstood the chilling winds of autumn to learn the basic skills of archery from our competent Miss Dudley.

The team did not compete with other schools this year. Even so, these dedicated girls practiced every Thursday afternoon to improve their skill. Due to the interest the girls have taken in this sport and to the experience they have acquired, it is expected that the archers will have matches against other schools next year.

Some of the outstanding members of this year's team are Laura Nelson, Bonnie MacAndrew, Marty Blankley, and Elizabeth Dolon.

MODERN DANCE

The girls who participate in modern dance learn the meaning of words such as design, symmetry and asymmetry, dynamics, and rhythm. They learn to explore movement beyond their own capacity. They not only learn dances and perform them, but they also have an opportunity to create their own.

Modern dance meets every Monday and Friday. However, many of the girls take lessons privately during the week. Since September, Laura Marino, Lizbet Anderson, Janet Diebold, Pat Armstrong, and Donna Stavrides have been working on one particular western style dance. The other girls—Vicki Valenti, Leslie Myers, and Laura Fieldsteel—have been practicing many different types of dances.

The ability and devotion that these girls have to modern dance is shown by their performance in the P.T.A. show this year.

The G.A.A. is headed this year by its capable president, Ruth Vollmerhausen. The other officers include Jane McDonough as vice-president, Ginny Leiser as social chairman, Priscilla Small as treasurer, and Cathy Locasto as secretary.

The main function of the G.A.A. is to plan and direct the annual Award Tea in the spring. However, this year the G.A.A. also plans to purchase parkas for the extramurals teams. The G.A.A. and its delegation have already planned the student-faculty volleyball game and are in the process of planning the softball game between the female students and faculty members. The G.A.A. has also improved some facilities in the locker room and in the gym. The G.A.A. is an important part of our physical education program.

LEADER'S CLUB

The Leader's Club has practically become a non-existent organization because there is no scheduled time when this club can meet. By next year it will be extinct due to the fact that only four seniors remain in the club—Fran Dehle, Sue Denton, Pam Ryan, and Priscilla Small. However, these four girls are not ready to give up hope for a scheduled meeting time.

These girls assist the physical education teachers during gym periods and after school. During the apparatus classes, their assistance is especially praiseworthy. Each leader is taught how to prevent accidents on the apparatus and is often called upon to help demonstrate each particular move.

VOLLEYBALL

This year, from the large number of girls who turned out for after school volleyball, five teams were chosen for interscholastic competition—an honor team, a reserve team, and three separate class teams. However, due to the excessive snow during the season only three matches were played (with Great Neck North, Herricks, and Mepham) in which Garden City won two and lost one. In a Sportsday, which was held at Sewanhaka High School, Garden City placed third among many schools in the North Shore. This year's teams were led to their victories by seniors Ruth "The Spike" Vollmerhausen, Tina Brazeau, and Becky Nixon, and juniors Jane McDonough and Sue "Screamy" Hoffmann.

The end of the season brought two exciting matches. The "Nags," a senior team, won the first match, deciding the intramural championship. The second contest, which was held among the three class teams, was won by the juniors.

BASKETBALL

This year both the girls' first and second teams had a highly successful season in basketball, losing only one game each and winning five. The first team lost to Port Washington by a score of 28 to 25, and the second team lost by a score of 33 to 10. Following these losses, however, both teams were undefeated. The first team defeated Great Neck South (29 to 26), Great Neck North (25 to 24), Valley Stream South (38 to 8), Herricks (61 to 16), and St. Mary's (71 to 11). The second team also defeated the same schools, but had lower scoring games.

This year's outstanding seniors on first team were Peggy Scholey, Ruth Vollmerhausen, and Kathy McGroarty. On the second team, the seniors who played were Candy Clark, Laurie Loranger, and Lee Heenan. Next year the teams should be as good as this year's due to the many excellent junior and sophomore girls who are now on both teams.

SOFTBALL

This year, the softball team members are looking forward to a successful season. Although the game schedule is not completed, there will be some very keen competition from other schools.

Last year's softball captain, Peggy Scholey, will be playing again this year. Many other senior girls will probably participate, and with the added strength of the junior and sophomore girls, the team should be excellent.

The highlight of girls' softball will be the annual student-faculty game. The sportsday team will probably exert all its efforts to win this concluding game of the season.

BOWLING

The girls on the bowling team this year meet every Wednesday afternoon at the Herrill Lanes to practice and to improve their skills. Under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Bauer, the sponsor, the girls developed into above-average bowlers.

Unfortunately, the girls had only one match this year. They lost this one to Mineola.

The bowling team consisted of girls from each grade. The outstanding seniors were Mimi Rohrbach, who averaged 145, Pat (L. W.) Hervey, and Jane Chinnici.

The sophomores and juniors who are now on the team should prove to be a great asset to the team next year.

When Lacrosse is mentioned, people usually think that the sport is only played by men. However, every year, there are also excellent girl Lacrosse players practicing on our athletic fields.

Senior Peggy Scholey, captain of last year's team, will play again this year. Among other senior girls who will participate is Becky Nixon, one of the better players on the team.

Miss Toner, the coach of Lacrosse, hopes that this year's team will be as successful as last year's. She also urges sophomore girls to participate so that they can acquire the needed experience for future years.
